Pastor's Column

The department stores will tell you that the season of Christmas is upon us. We in the church, however, realize that it is the season of Advent we are entering. The Christmas season isn't here yet. First we have to get ready, to prepare for the birth of Christ into our lives.

You will find lots of ways to prepare for the birth of Christ offered here at UPC this Advent season. If you find yourself feeling rushed or frenzied, come join the Taize service for a time of quiet meditation, beautiful music, and tranquil candle light. If this is a season which surfaces painful memories, losses, or sorrows, you may find the Service of Peace, Hope, and Light a meaningful occasion.

Are you seeking time to spend with your family and friends, to enjoy laughter and good companionship? The Advent pot-luck and workshop will provide good food, a time for crafts and wreath-making, and a very special play, written by our own Howard Henry and performed by a wonderful cast of UPC members.

Maybe you are seeking a way to give joy to others. All members of the congregation are invited to go Christmas caroling to members and friends of UPC who are unable to join us each week in worship.

'Tis the season to fulfill the prophet's cry: Prepare the way of the Lord! Through quiet means and boisterous ones, let us ready ourselves for Christ's coming.

Shalom,
Tracy

Food Pantry By The Numbers

Each month, the UPC Food Pantry submits a report to the Food Bank of Western New York, indicating how many households were served during the month, and how many individuals make up those households. We share these statistics with our congregation, which provides such generous support to our pantry, both in time and in donations.

Anyone interested in volunteering one afternoon a month at the Pantry can call Barbara Pearson, 833-3163.

Special Advent Event!!

This year UPC is in for a very special Advent event. On Sunday, December 4, our congregation is invited to an Advent pot-luck lunch and workshop. At the workshop, members can make an advent wreath for home devotional time, and also join in a variety of star-making crafts. But that's not all! In addition to good food and crafts, we will be treated to a special play. "The Star Diner" is a play written by our very talented Howard Henry, directed by Pat Cookfair-Casseri, and starring a cast of UPC youth and adults. The play is a re-telling of the Christmas story set in a 1940's diner. You won't want to miss this event. Please sign up in the Holzwarth Room.

Service of Peace, Hope, and Light

Wednesday, December 14, 7:00 PM

North Presbyterian Church Chapel

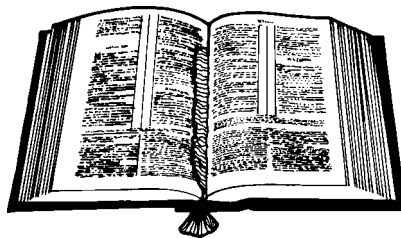

For many people the Christmas season is a bittersweet time of year. For those who know that this Christmas will be a hard one because they have had a death in the family, a loss of job or health, a broken relationship or because of painful memories of Christmases past, the Stephen Ministry and Deacons of North Presbyterian Church, University Presbyterian Church and First Clarence Presbyterian offer an annual Service of Peace, Hope and Light. This is a quiet, meditative worship service giving participants the chance to meet, worship and reflect as Christmas approaches. All are welcome. There will be a time of refreshment and fellowship following the service, and the opportunity to explore Soul Feast will also be available.

Cookie Sale and Book Sale

Don't miss the 7th Annual Christmas Cookie Sale, held on December 10th in Reid Hall from 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM. Also on sale that day will be a large selection of used books and gift items from El Buen Amigo.
