Pastor's Column

This morning was one of those winter days when it seemed like a good idea to crawl back under the covers. It was gray, dark, damp, and cold. Sometimes the winter season can leave us feeling worn down. For others among us, it isn't so much the season outside that wears us down as it is the "winter-time" seasons of our souls, spirits, and minds.

The burdens we carry, the grief we bear, our anxieties and worries, our health concerns—all of these can leave us feeling as if winter's darkness has settled upon our hearts.

In early January, some of us found a moment of refreshment in the midst of our literal as well as our spiritual winters. The First Friday Taize service was a restoring moment of quiet prayer, beautiful music, and candle light that left many among us feeling as though we had been lifted up from the struggles of everyday life. The turn-out of worshippers was well beyond our expectations with a significant number coming from our wider community. Following the service, many of those in attendance spoke of how much the service was meaningful to them. More than one person said to me, "I'll definitely be back!" A UPC member stated that, "My day just went from here," lowering her hand to her knees, "to here!" lifting her hand up passed her head.

It's amazing how meaningful some quiet prayer, some simple songs of faith, and some lovely music can be! The impact of this simple service indicates how scarce such moments are in our days when we can sit with God and let God's spirit wash over us—and how much we need them! It is medicine to our souls.

Our next First Friday Taize service is Friday, February 4 from 5:30 – 6 p.m. Maybe you would like to share in this healing medicine with us!

Shalom,
Tracy

Adult Education Hour

February will be a very informative month. We will start out on February 6th with Margaret Talboys from Habitat for Humanity. UPC has been involved with this great cause for many years. Margaret will tell us some of the history of Habitat. She will also be letting us in on any updates on new projects in the works.

February 13th we will hear from Howard Henry on "Torture, What is my Christian Response?" As always, Howard tries to get us to see the world from a religious point of view. He is always interesting and thought provoking.

On February 20th we will have a week of Bible study, using our Seasons of the Spirit. This class will be lead by Donna Riddagh.

On February 27th, Dr. Tim Wadkins will start a two-week series in which he tries to get us to look at the world through our "Christian" eyes.

We hope you will plan to join us! The coffee is always hot!

Food Pantry By The Numbers

Each month, the UPC Food Pantry submits a report to the Food Bank of Western New York, indicating how many households were served during the month, and how many individuals make up those households. We share these statistics with our congregation, which provides such generous support to our pantry, both in time and in donations.

Anyone interested in volunteering one afternoon a month at the Pantry can call Gerry Grisante at 835-0433.

First Friday
AT UNIVERSITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Too many of us lead hectic lives.

Our communities are filled with violence and suffering.

Our personal pain and struggles can overwhelm us.

How do we respond? How can we cope?

University Presbyterian Church welcomes Christians from all traditions to unite in a special contemplative worship experience as we seek spiritual strength for the living of our days. Based on the style of worship practiced in the Taize Christian community in France, these services offered on the First Friday of each month provide an oasis at the end of the week for all who are weary, troubled, or rushed. Special music from guest musicians, meditative songs, prayers, candles, and scripture readings allow each of us to find a quiet place of prayer and spiritual centering.

We invite you to join us on Friday, February 4 from 5:30 – 6 p.m. University Presbyterian Church is located at 3330 Main St., Buffalo (across the street from UB South Campus) with parking available in the church lot off Niagara Falls Boulevard. The church is also conveniently accessible using public transportation by taking bus or train to the University Metro station. Questions can be directed to the church office at 836-7660.
