

A Multi-faith Program In Word and Song

Presented by:

The Rev. Elizabeth and Noel "Paul"
Stookey

The embrace of 'God' is vast, able to exceed all our definitions and expectations. Can we unlock our certainties and open a way within for acceptance of differences?"

Betty Stookey

Saturday, October 11, 2014
7 p.m.

University Presbyterian Church
3330 Main Street
Buffalo, NY
upcbuffalo.org

Betty Stookey is an ordained minister who in her role as a school chaplain has ministered to over a thousand students of many faiths ranging from Buddhist and Christian, to Muslim and Jewish.

Noel "Paul" Stookey is a singer-songwriter and "Paul" of Peter Paul and Mary. For decades he has been writing songs that reflect on the political, cultural, sociopolitical, and spiritual dynamics of our age.

Co-sponsored by University Presbyterian Church and the Institute for the Global Study of Religion at Canisius College

This program is free and open to the public